What is the Certified Senior Advisor (CSA)® Certification?

The Certified Senior Advisor (CSA)® is the leading certification for professionals serving older adults. It demonstrates competency in the knowledge of the health, social, financial, and ethical issues associated with aging. Obtaining the CSA certification, shows a commitment to high ethical standards, lifelong learning, and exceptional service to older adults.

The CSA certification program is accredited by both the American National Standards Institute (ANSI) and the National Commission for Certifying Agencies (NCCA), which means the public can have confidence in the credibility and value of the credential.

A Growing Need for Qualified Professionals

The Baby Boomer Generation is redefining the meaning of the word "senior" as it enters the 65+ demographic in record numbers, making this a growing market with very specialized needs.

- Every day, more than 10,000 Americans turn 65 a trend that will continue until 2029.
- Seniors age 85 and over represent the fastest-growing segment of this group.
- Over 70% of America's wealth is controlled by adults over age 50.

Today's older adult consumer requires more initiative than ever before. How are you differentiating yourself from the competition? By becoming a Certified Senior Advisor (CSA)[®] you are taking an integral first step in defining your commitment to the older adult consumer.
